RELOCATION EXPENSES ARE NOT AUTHORIZED.

The Office of Finance and Administration provides all financial management and acquisition services to PSA including budget formulation/execution, accounting and internal control; is responsible for procurement and contracting programs to acquire products and services for support of PSA programs, for contract administration and for the provision of a variety of administrative services including, but not limited to facilities, space and property management and support services and supply. The office is the proponent of all policies and procedures relating to these functions, ensuring adherence to law and regulation, and for advice to PSA senior management.

SUMMARY OF PRIMARY DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

The incumbent of the position is Deputy Director of the Office, participating fully with the Office Director in management of all office functions and operations. He/she:

- Develops operating goals and objectives for the Office and related plans and resource requirements. Participates with the Office Director in long-and short- range planning initiatives. Designs and recommends alternatives for the Office to address mission critical requirements. Directs special studies and assessments of Office processes and operations, evaluating accomplishments against established goals and objectives. Directs or performs reviews of efficiency and customer service and develops and implements strategies to correct deficiencies. Reviews and analyzes new and pending legislation and regulations relative to Office functions and advises on appropriate response.
- Administers and has independent responsibility for assigned functions and operations of the Office. Resolves sensitive and complex problems, interpreting and apply regulation, policy and precedent as appropriate. Manages Office response to internal and external reporting requirements. Utilizing automated and manual records systems, directs or gathers information and prepares response, coordinating and verifying information as required.
- Acts for the Office Director with full responsibility for management and supervision of the Office. Identifies the need for and conducts or leads teams in special studies; develops methodology, collects and analyzes data and prepares recommendations and alternatives. Incorporates findings into planning and operational decisions.
- Manages the development and coordination of policies and procedures for all functions for which the Office is responsible. Directs or analyzes PSA requirements and ensures compliance with law and regulation.
- Manages the Internal Management Controls program (A-123) and controls required by the Federal Manager's Financial Integrity Act. Coordinates annual reviews and certification. Reviews audit reports and results of internal control reviews and advises on compliance and program requirements.
- Supervises assigned staff, administering leave policies; counseling employees and determining training and development goals and requirements; establishing priorities, assigning work and evaluating collective and individual performance; and, implementing programs in awards and recognition, equal employment opportunity, and affirmative action. Manages assigned contract staff.

Qualification Requirements:

1. One year of specialized experience in a financial or accounting program including accounting operations and services, developing policies, procedures, and methodologies, collecting and analyzing data, using automated accounting systems, reporting, audit and internal control that was comparable in difficulty and responsibility to the GS-13 level.

Evaluation Methods:

Applicants will be evaluated on the extent and quality of their experience, education and training, job-related awards and supervisory appraisal of performance. If applicants meet the basic qualification requirements and the selective factor, their application/resume will be evaluated against the knowledge, skills and abilities required for this position. Category rating will be used to evaluate applicants using three categories (Best Qualified, Well Qualified, and Qualified) to determine which applicants will be referred to the selecting official for final consideration.

The selective factor must be met to be eligible for this position.

Selective Factor:

Candidate must have one of the following: CPA, degree in accounting, or 24 semester hours in accounting.

To receive full consideration, applicants must address each of the knowledge, skills and abilities described below.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities Required:

1. Knowledge of generally accepted accounting standards and principles, accounting concepts and fiscal procedures.
2. Knowledge of federal financial statements and coordination with independent auditors for annual and quarterly audit planning and execution functions.
3. Knowledge of federal accounting programs, including experience in accounting operations and services, automated accounting systems, Federal travel rules and regulations, reporting, audit and internal controls, and development of required policies and procedures.
4. Skill in written and verbal communication with internal staff and external organizations.
5. Skill in project management in financial operations.

About PSA:

The D.C. Pretrial Services Agency (PSA) is an independent entity in the Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency in the federal executive branch of the United States government. PSA is responsible for the investigation and supervision of persons arrested and released into the community pending disposition of their cases in the D.C. Superior Court and U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia. PSA is committed to honoring the constitutional presumption of innocence and enhancing public safety. Its mission is to 1) formulate recommendations that promote the use of least restrictive nonfinancial pretrial release and 2) provide effective community supervision for defendants to ensure court appearance, promote public safety, and address social issues that contribute to crime.
